UP TO FOUR KIDS GET IN FREE TO NORTHWEST TREK WILDLIFE PARK WITH EACH PAYING ADULT
DURING KIDS 'N' CRITTERS LONG WEEKEND, FEB. 13-15

EATONVILLE, Wash. – It's not too early to make family plans for President's Day Weekend. Northwest Trek Wildlife Park is offering an unbeatable combination of outdoor experience, animal viewing and budget-friendly fun.

Up to four children ages 12 and under are admitted free with each paying adult during Kids 'n' Critters weekend, Saturday, Feb. 13 through Monday, Feb. 15.

Plus, discounted admission prices are available for senior citizens, Pierce County residents and members of the military.

Each visit to Northwest Trek includes a narrated tram tour through a 435-acre Free-Roaming Area that is home to Willow the moose calf and her parents, bighorn sheep, mountain goats, bison, deer and other animals. For this special event, tram seating is limited to the first 1,500 visitors each day. All tram tours during Kids 'n' Critters weekend are a kid-friendly 30 minutes long.

Kids can enjoy dedicated storytime at 11 am and 1 pm, close-up Trailside Encounters with animals at 11:30 am and 1:30 pm, all-day crafts at the Baker Research Cabin, and other activities.

And, of course, there are wolves, Canada lynx, bobcats, foxes, owls, river otters, beavers and many other animals in natural exhibits along paved walking paths.

All activities are free with admission to Kids 'n' Critters.

Northwest Trek is open from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. each day of Kids 'n' Critters. For more information, visit www.nwtrek.org.
